(By the Associated I reas.)—The Germans are retreating on a 75-mile front from the river Scheldt to the river Alsne.

In the face of the retreat the situation changes so rapidly, hour by hour, that it is impossible to give a definite idea of the allied advance.

Roughly, the allies have crossed the Franco-Belgian frontier between Valenciennes and Bavay, which is eight miles west of the fortress of Maubeuge. The allies are within two miles of Bavay. They have captured the whole of Mormai forest, except the eastern edge. Then the line runs from Marelles to the western edge of Nouvron forest, two miles east of Guise, two miles south of Maric, and along the Serre front to Clermont river, and then in a straight line to Chateau Porcien.
